SOUTH AUSTRALIA

ADELAIDE & SURROUNDS

Adelaide is full of vibrant cafés and eclectic restaurants as well as a strong events scene that incorporates all manner of tastes. One of the many great things about Adelaide is its accessibility, one minute you're in the city and then in 20 minutes time you can be relaxing in the sun on Adelaide's popular beach, Glenelg.

An easy 30-minute drive east of the city leads to the picturesque farmlands and charming villages of the Adelaide Hills. In the Adelaide Hills and Hahndorf, visit country pubs, wander the craft shops and antique stores and sample treats from the German bakeries in historic Hahndorf, Australia's oldest surviving German settlement.

ADELAIDE CITY BREAK

Explore Adelaide at leisure, a city surrounded by parklands with a thriving art scene and world class food and wine. Experience the cosmopolitan life of Adelaide on this half day tour of Adelaide, taking in Adelaide's main attractions and points of interest. Wine, lunch and chocolate are the delights of a dream day out in the Barossa with an intimate full-day tour. Take time to sample some of the Barossa's finest wines and gourmet food that has made this South Australian wine region an international icon.

BAROSSA & KANGAROO ISLAND

Soak up the country hospitality, gourmet food, delightful wines and sensational scenery of the Barossa and Clare Valley. The landscape is dotted with farms, vineyards and country roads leading to lovingly restored heritage towns. The region also serves up a variety of culinary pleasures. Stock up on fresh produce at farmers' markets and sample locally made cheeses, olives, breads and cakes from artisan food producers.

Accessible by ferry from Cape Jervis or by plane from Adelaide, Kangaroo Island offers brilliant local cuisine, small batch wines and a leisurely way of life. As the third largest island off the coast of mainland Australia, Kangaroo Island is more than a day-trip destination. At 155 kilometres long and up to 55 kilometres wide it covers an area of 4,416 square kilometres, and is separated from the mainland by a 15 kilometre stretch of ocean. With so much coastline, there are plenty of spots for swimming, surfing, diving and fishing.

DISCOVER KANGAROO ISLAND

Our thoughts are with everyone around Australia affected by current events and it is imperative that we offer our support, not only through donations but also by visiting the areas which rely on tourism such as Kangaroo Island.

NORTHERN TASMANIA

Travel the Tamar Valley Wine Route and just outside Launceston, step back in time at historic Longford. King Solomon and Marakooa Caves, both near the town of Mole Creek, showcase glow worms that twinkle, and highlight the incredible caves in which they live.

It's another world in North Western Tasmania, and one certainly worth a visit. There is a tranquillity here that's unique to the region; artisans really shine, and the red earth produces wonderfully fresh produce that is craved across Australia. Explore the Bass Strait and the iconic landmark that is Cradle Mountain.

EAST COAST

Household names abound along Tasmania's East Coast: the Bay of Fires, Freycinet National Park, Wineglass Bay and Maria Island – they're all here for enjoyment, and they're all equally spectacular.

It's postcard-perfect scenery on the Freycinet Peninsula. Maria Island is also incredibly unique and only accessible by ferry from Triabunna. The island is renowned for its stunning natural beauty, wildlife and convict history.

SYDNEY

As Australia's largest city, Sydney is big and bustling, but its distinct precincts and great transport system make it easy and fun to explore.

The hub of Circular Quay is the focal point of the city. A launch pad for many harbour adventures, you'll find cruise operators including Captain Cook Cruises and ferries coming and going all day long and massive cruise ships docking here too. Next to this hive of activity is The Rocks – a compact historic quarter full of converted warehouses and cobblestone lanes. Within walking distance are two of Sydney's famous icons – experience the Sydney Harbour Bridge up close with BridgeClimb Sydney and explore on a Sydney Opera House Guided Tour.

HUNTER VALLEY

The Hunter Valley may be best known for its wine but there's so much more to this picturesque region. Just two hours by car from Sydney or join the Hunter Valley Harvest Wine Experience, you'll find beautiful scenery and charming villages. There's plenty to do with golf courses, day spas, hot air ballooning and more.

ALICE SPRINGS, ULURU & KINGS CANYON

The massive sandstone monolith of Uluru is Australia's most recognisable natural icon. Further west, Kata Tjuta offers more astounding sights. The 36 rock domes date back 500 million years. Watch the amazing transformation of pre-dawn colours on a Desert Awakenings Tour. Australia's highlights, the 270-metre-high chasm of Kings Canyon in Watarrka National Park. Trek through walking trails to palm-filled crevices and along the canyon rim to marvel at views across the desert. Alice Springs, with its modern and vibrant atmosphere, it is the hub of Central Australia and is rich with culture and Aboriginal heritage.
